

The Diocesan Office of the Anglican Church of Bermuda

Welcome CHELSEA

Chelsea is a Bermudian professional with a Bachelor of Business Administration, specialising in Management with a minor in Strategic Human Resource Management. She brings six years of experience in administration, executive support, client service, and office operations across corporate services, healthcare, and aviation.

She has a strong background in supporting senior leadership, coordinating projects, managing schedules and communications, and fostering organised, efficient, and welcoming environments. Chelsea is a worshipping member of St Mark's Church, and she is also a natural creative who enjoys writing stories of Bermuda's history and culture in her spare time.

She is excited to join the Diocese of the Anglican Church of Bermuda, to serve alongside Bishop Nick and the diocesan team, and contribute her skills, creativity, and enthusiasm to the work ahead.
